Andrew Harrison, MD, gave a Webinar for Cybersight, an educational division of Orbis on July 26, 2017, entitled: Congenital ptosis: Diagnosis and management. The audience included 54 ophthalmologists from 27 countries! Lecture: https://cybersight.org/portfolio/lecture-congenital-ptosis-diagnosis-and-management/

Michael Lee, MD, and Collin McClelland, MD, gave platform presentations at the Upper Midwest Neuro-Ophthalmology Group (UMNOG) Annual Meeting in Chicago, Illinois on Friday, July 28, 2017, and each delivered two invited talks at the 33rd Pan-American Congress of Ophthalmology held in Lima, Peru, August 9-12.

On Saturday, August 12, a team of faculty and staff representing the Department of Ophthalmology & Visual Neurosciences participated in the Chainbreaker ride. Chainbreaker is an exciting fundraising experience that included a weekend of cycling, entertainment, and volunteerism with 100% of the funds raised by riders going to fund life-saving cancer research at the Masonic Cancer Center, University of Minnesota. The “Eyerollers” team consisted of Joshua Hou, MD, Amanda Maltry, MD, Joshua Olson, MD, Michael Page, MD, MA, Amanda Beaner, Becky Phelps, and Pauline Smith. The team raised $8300 dollars and there is still time to donate! Donations can be given at chainbreakerride.org for their peloton, the “Eyerollers” until October 13.
